

tag

trauma and abuse group

tag is a group studying and supporting work concerning trauma, abuse and dissociation, with particular interests in sexual, ritual and extreme abuse, attachment theory and Dissociative Identity Disorder.

tag is a registered charity with membership open to anyone interested or concerned in this field, including counsellors, therapists, psychiatrists, mental health teams, GP's, survivors, partners and allies of survivors, pastoral workers and clergy.

Its journal interact covers a wide range of issues and is relevant to anyone in this field, whether working or living with issues of dissociation and trauma.

The autumn 2009 edition of interact is now available for sale to members and non-members at the cost of £3.50 inc P&P. Articles include:

- "Self-Harm and Suicidality" by Janina Fisher
- "For Better, For Worse: Life as the Partner of a Dissociative Survivor" by Rob, with Carolyn Spring
- "Different, Normal, Surviving, Outraged" (a DID survivor's perspective) by Carolyn Spring
- "It's Not Me, It's You: Sexual Abuse and the Legacy of False Responsibility" by Rebecca Mitchell
- "Supervision of Work with Trauma and Dissociation: An Attachment-Based Perspective" by Sue Richardson
- Conference Reports, Diary Events and more.

For details of membership, which includes a new bi-monthly newsletter as well as two copies per year of interact, please visit www.tag-uk.net.

To order interact, please complete the attached order form or email newslettereditor@tag-uk.net for details of online payments and order processing.

